WILL INSTRUCT FOR WILSON.

The Eagle does not share the views of the Waco Times-Herald with reference to Woodrow Wilson and the democracy of Texas. The Eagle believes the people of Texas are loyal to President Wilson and will give him their undivided support at the St.
Louis convention. We do not believe their endorsement for renomination will be given in any half-hearted manner as the Times-Herald intimates:"The Texas delegation to the St.
Louis convention will be instructed for Woodrow Wilson."And yet it must be conceded that it is going to be very difficult to pick men for delegates who will be enthusiastic Wilson supporters.

"Let's get down to particulars.

"Arthur J. Barton, Tom Campbell, Allen Thomas, Tom Love and the men who agree with them would prefer Bryan to Wilson, for the reason that Bryan more nearly represents their views.

"Bailey, Riens Johnston, Oscar

A. M. Waldrop &amp; Co.

Colquitt, George Boynton and the men who agree with them would much prefer some one who nearer represents their views as to the tariff than does Mr. Wilson, says Mr. Bailey himself."Then there are those who do not like Mr. Wilson's attitude toward Germany, and these represent a strength of from fifty to seventy-five thousand votes."But it were impossible for any one of these elements to rally a sufficient following to 'lick the platter clean,' and so each will assume a virtue as to Wilson and give him the State's endorsement."

MONEY AT SIX PER CENT.

Mr. President, if the senator will pardon an interruption, as shedding some light upon this, we had some experience in Mississippi. Money was being loaned at 8, 9 and 10 per cent.
The legislature finally, in order to encourage capital to come into the State, passed a law exempting from taxes all loans at 6 per cent or under 6 per cent. Nearly every long-time loan in the State of Mississippi since then has been reduced to 6 per cent; in fact, when a 6 per cent untaxed loan comes to vie with an 8 per cent taxed loan, if you take the taxes into consideration, it is better for the lender to lend at 6 per cent; he gets more net revenue. A great many people who were loaning at even 9 and 10 per cent were willing to accept the lower rate, because they do not have to pay taxes, and because they do not have to be bothered with the tax collector, with making out returns, and all that sort of thing. I think in all public legislation less attention is paid than the matter really deserves to the desire of men not to be bothered with having to make out statements for taxing purposes. At any rate, the fact in my State has been that nearly every long-time loan in the State has been reduced to 6 per cent.
—Senator John Sharp Williams.If all the money sent away from Bryan for goods that could be bought here, was kept in Bryan and kept in circulation, it would not only help the Bryan merchants but everybody else in the community. We can't scatter our resources and prosper, and every dollar sent away is gone for all eternity.A Lullian widow is suing the Cunard Company for $750,000 for the loss of her husband. It must have been some husband if he was worth that much. We believe she could get half a dozen husbands for less than half the amount.—Houston Post.We are anxious to get a squirt at those new lights in the Civic League Park. When turned on they are going to add some class to that part of the city.The corn is growing so fast you can almost see it."BROTHER CHARLEY" REFUSES TO ACCEPT VERDICT.Mr. Charles Bryan, brother of the one and only, offered himself before the democrats of Nebraska as a candidate for their nomination to the office of governor. If he had won, he would have claimed entitlement to support of all democratic voters in the primary. He was defeated, his opponent receiving a large majority of the party vote, and Mr. Bryan refuses to accept the verdict, announces his purpose of running for governor on the populist ticket and of doing all he can to defeat the democratic nominee.
Thus he shows himself to be neither honorable or honest, and unworthy the trust of any party.—Norfolk Virginian-Pilot.Brother Wm. J. was also defeated by the same people in the same election for delegate at large from Nebraska to the national democratic convention. He, too, refuses to accept the verdict of the people and says he is going anyhow.A new and modern high school building is one of the crying needs of unless given the most favorable environment possible. Our children are entitled to the very best to be had.The rain has put new life into everything. Gardens and crops are fast coming to the front and the people are inspired with new hope.With two brick buildings going up on Main Street, it does not look like Bryan does it?Politics is moving off slow in seem to be warming up much on the

HAD FINE SERVICE.

Pastor C. C. Wheeler reports a splendid service at the Free Baptist Church last night when the new members were received, converts from the recent revival, and the ordinance of baptism was administered. The house was crowded and chairs had to be placed in the aisles to seat the people. The fellowship and spirit of the meeting were fine, and the occasion was inspirational for all present.
When the opportunity was given 18 new members were received into the church and several others are yet to be received. Nine were baptized at the service last night.
